PLAYS and PLAYERS

Another big crowd attended the Meyers talking picture show at the Grand opera house last night and was highly pleased with the entertainment. "The College Chums" and "The Race for Millions" were the titles of the pieces given last night.
The singing of Miss Marlow and Mr.
Marlow with illustrated pictures, was very good. She sang the "Good Old U. S. A." and he sang "Take Me to the Ball Game." Tonight "The Bankers Daughter," and "The Blue Bon-nets" will be given by the talking pictures and Mr. Marlow will sing the latest eastern success, "Tippecanary." This is a new form of entertainment for Clarksbuurg, but it is proving very popular with theater patrons and each night there is a larger attendance than the previous nights. The pieces remain the same—10, 20 and 30 cents.

Lyman H. Howe whose perennially popular Lifeorama will be seen at the Grand Opera House Monday night, October 19, has collected from all over the world a series of pictures for his new program that is unique and invaluable. One of the features transports the audience to the vast Indian empire, teeming with its native millions, composed of an infinite variety of peoples as distinct from one another as it is possible for them to be. The picture clearly reveals the fact that Western civilization has not changed the ancient characteristics of the real Indian, thought it has modified it in Bombay and Calcutta, which are shown in all their tripe cosmopolitanism. The scenes appeal alike to the artist, philosopher and student as the most unique to be found anywhere. Abundant evidence is found by gorgeous temples, rock sculptures, monuments, etc., of a splendid by-gone civilization which was at its height when Europe was overrun by savage hordes. The pictures shown by Mr. Howe were taken by special authority of the Indian government and secretary of state.

Eminently fascinating studies on natural history are shown in another series. The gambols and actions of cats, dogs, monkeys, parrots, etc., are not only quaint and unique but very amusing. Never were more exciting incidents condensed in one picture as there have been in that showing of a 10-mile steeplechase in England. After seeing it no one in the audience can envy the big fees paid English jockeys for risking life and limb as shown in this picture. The race is intensely exciting because of its numerous accidents. A delightful trip by automobile through Savoy, France; Australian sports and pastimes; picturesque Naples; Sicily; the annual drill 1908) by the Red army; and many other scenes that compose a program of incomparable beauty and interest.

made up of Clarksbuurg business men in a most enjoyable and interesting contest at Union park yesterday afternoon. There were many exciting features of the game, so many that an enumeration would be tedious.

POLICE COURT

One Defendant Decides *to Leave City Rather Than Pay a Fine.

disorderly conduct by a policeman on complaint of Thomas Burke last evening but at the regular session of police court this morning, conducted by Mayor Wood no one appeared against him and he was discharged.

pended on his promise to leave the city.

Bert Hair was also fined $3 and cost for drunkenness and was released on his promise to pay the fine at a future date.

The put-up fine of $4.40 deposited by Joe Carr, who was arrested for drunkenness, was forfeited.

church at the new fair grounds, costing $2,000, will be dedicated at an all day meeting at the church Sunday, October 17. The Rev. L. E. Queen, Grafton, will preach the dedicatory sermon.

tron of the Fairmont chapter of the Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.
It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work.

Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr.
Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys.
The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of Swamp-Root, by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.
